

FARMER TICE'S VOCABULARY PRACTICE BK.4.2

- 1} failing to do what the law requires; failing to make a payment; someone who regularly breaks the law. Farmer Tice was never _____ in paying his taxes, because he never had to pay any taxes.
- 2} furtively; stealthily; secretly; as a spy or burglar would do. Farmer Tice snuck into the kitchen through the back door _____ to pilfer from the cookie jar.
- 3} damage done by a hoodlum or ravager. During their rally, the Nutria tore up Farmer Tice's cornfield & fences thus committing a heap of _____.
- 4} a whopper; a made-up story nobody would believe. Even if Farmer Tice could have remembered what happened to him, everyone would have just called it a _____ story.
- 5} having to do with cells, living organisms, molecules, the body, etc. Farmer Tice was so odd that the aliens decided to perform some _____ tests on him to see what kind of humanoid he was.
- 6} what is absolutely needed; can't get by without them. Farmer Tice's truss & Preparation H were among his bare _____.
- 7} Indian civil rights leader who liberated India from British colonialism. Farmer Tice walked the streets of Hokum in a toga and was thought of as the _____ of the No Work movement.
- 8} dreaming about something you want badly; pretending; hallucinating; envisioning. Farmer Tice was always _____ about being at a place where all he had to do was sleep and fish.
- 9} complicated, confusing, hard to figure out. The aliens had trouble trying to figure Farmer Tice out. They didn't know whether he was a great & powerful fool, or just a fool. They found him _____.
- 10} self-assured. The man with the yellow cowlick never doubts himself. He's always very _____.
- 11} slang or hillbilly word for okay. Whenever Honeybunch tells Farmer Tice to get to work, he always tells her _____ but always does just the opposite.
- 12} being completely confused; baffled; without a clue. No one could find Farmer Tice. He disappeared without a trace. Everyone in Hokum was completely _____.
- 13} resembling humans; primates; apes. Not quite certain that Farmer Tice was a human being, the aliens just referred to him as an _____.
- 14} well known or famous for. Hercules is well known for his strength & courage, whereas Farmer Tice is _____ for his money making schemes, cookie jar pilfering, & laziness.
- 15} sitting or waiting room for guests; a small room. Before reporting Farmer Tice as a missing person to Sheriff Bobbo, Honeybunch visited the beauty _____ to see Pierre.
- 16} verb. to doubt or mistrust; to believe a person is guilty of something with little or no proof. Farmer Tune didn't think Farmer Tice would ever _____ him after adding a zero to the IOU.

- 17} famous prison on an island in the San Francisco Bay. Farmer Tice renamed his farm "The Rock" in reference to the prison, _____.
- 18} likely to believe anything; easily fooled or persuaded. One of the reasons Honeybunch didn't like Farmer Tice hanging around with strangers is because he is _____ and would fall for almost anything.
- 19} lacking education; lack of information about something or someone. Having never been past the second grade, Farmer Tice was _____ about a great many things.
- 20} decisive; convincing; compelling; without a doubt. Farmer Tune thought he had _____ evidence of an alien flying saucer until the FBI showed him the words "MADE IN CHINA".
- 21} from another planet. Ziggy and Chloé were _____ from the planet Zolameir.
- 22} to float or remain suspended in the air; usually paired with "over". The aliens _____ over Farmer Tice's just before landing.
- 23} with hesitation; no eager to; not willing to. The aliens were very _____ to bring Farmer Tice back with them for fear that he might dumb down their planet.
- 24} process of causing a liquid to pass through the wall of a living cell. The aliens were able to get all of the water they needed through the process of _____.
- 25} causing fear, apprehension or dread; of great strength; forceful; power. In book #2, when Farmer Tice took on Honeybunch using Gorilla Kung Fu, she proved to be a _____ opponent.
- 26} mind reading. Ziggy and Chloé communicated with each other through mental _____.
- 27} by luck or chance; lucky. The man with the yellow cowlick showing up just when the Nutria were about to riot was what you'd call a _____ event.
- 28} electromagnetic radiation having to do with quantum mechanics. In order to travel across several solar systems, Ziggy and Chloé employed the use of _____ waves in quantum theory.
- 29} exact; exactly; definite. The aliens interrogated Farmer Tice and put him through a series of tests in order to determine his _____ level of intelligence.
- 30} members of the communist party; members of fraternal or political group; friend or companion. Ziggy and Chloé were, both, students and _____.

telepathy, Alcatraz, essentials, bewildered, biological, cock 'n' bull, comrades, conclusive, confident, anthropoid, extraterrestrials, fantasizing, delinquent, formidable, fortuitous, gullible, hovered, ignorant, Mahatma Gandhi, okie dokie, osmosis, parlor, perplexing, photon, precise, reluctant, renown, surreptitiously, suspect, vandalism

FARMER TICE'S VOCABULARY PRACTICE BK.4.2

- 1} failing to do what the law requires; failing to make a payment; someone who regularly breaks the law. Farmer Tice was never delinquent in paying his taxes, because he never had to pay any taxes.
- 2} furtively; stealthily; secretly; as a spy or burglar would do. Farmer Tice snuck into the kitchen through the back door surreptitiously to pilfer from the cookie jar.
- 3} damage done by a hoodlum or ravager. During their rally, the Nutria tore up Farmer Tice's cornfield & fences thus committing a heap of vandalism.
- 4} a whopper; a made-up story nobody would believe. Even if Farmer Tice could have remembered what happened to him, everyone would have just called it a cock 'n' bull story.
- 5} having to do with cells, living organisms, molecules, the body, etc. Farmer Tice was so odd that the aliens decided to perform some biological tests on him to see what kind of humanoid he was.
- 6} what is absolutely needed; can't get by without them. Farmer Tice's truss & Preparation H were among his bare essentials.
- 7} Indian civil rights leader who liberated India from British colonialism. Farmer Tice walked the streets of Hokum in a toga and was thought of as the Mahatma Gandhi of the No Work movement.
- 8} dreaming about something you want badly; pretending; hallucinating; envisioning. Farmer Tice was always fantasizing about being at a place where all he had to do was sleep and fish.
- 9} complicated, confusing, hard to figure out. The aliens had trouble trying to figure Farmer Tice out. They didn't know whether he was a great & powerful fool, or just a fool. They found him perplexing.
- 10} self-assured. The man with the yellow cowlick never doubts himself. He's always very confident.
- 11} slang or hillbilly word for okay. Whenever Honeybunch tells Farmer Tice to get to work, he always tells her okie dokie but always does just the opposite.
- 12} being completely confused; baffled; without a clue. No one could find Farmer Tice. He disappeared without a trace. Everyone in Hokum was completely bewildered.
- 13} resembling humans; primates; apes. Not quite certain that Farmer Tice was a human being, the aliens just referred to him as an anthropoid.
- 14} well known or famous for. Hercules is well known for his strength & courage, whereas Farmer Tice is renown for his money making schemes, cookie jar pilfering, & laziness.
- 15} sitting or waiting room for guests; a small room. Before reporting Farmer Tice as a missing person to Sheriff Bobbo, Honeybunch visited the beauty parlor to see Pierre.
- 16} verb. to doubt or mistrust; to believe a person is guilty of something with little or no proof. Farmer Tune didn't think Farmer Tice would ever suspect him after adding a zero to the IOU.

- 17} famous prison on an island in the San Francisco Bay. Farmer Tice renamed his farm “The Rock” in reference to the prison, Alcatraz.
- 18} likely to believe anything; easily fooled or persuaded. One of the reasons Honeybunch didn’t like Farmer Tice hanging around with strangers is because he is gullible and would fall for almost anything.
- 19} lacking education; lack of information about something or someone. Having never been past the second grade, Farmer Tice was ignorant about a great many things.
- 20} decisive; convincing; compelling; without a doubt. Farmer Tune thought he had conclusive evidence of an alien flying saucer until the FBI showed him the words “MADE IN CHINA”.
- 21} from another planet. Ziggy and Chloé were extraterrestrials from the planet Zolameir.
- 22} to float or remain suspended in the air; usually paired with “over”. The aliens hovered over Farmer Tice’s just before landing.
- 23} with hesitation; no eager to; not willing to. The aliens were very reluctant to bring Farmer Tice back with them for fear that he might dumb down their planet.
- 24} process of causing a liquid to pass through the wall of a living cell. The aliens were able to get all of the water they needed through the process of osmosis.
- 25} causing fear, apprehension or dread; of great strength; forceful; power. In book #2, when Farmer Tice took on Honeybunch using Gorilla Kung Fu, she proved to be a formidable opponent.
- 26} mind reading. Ziggy and Chloé communicated with each other through mental telepathy.
- 27} by luck or chance; lucky. The man with the yellow cowlick showing up just when the Nutria were about to riot was what you’d call a fortuitous event.
- 28} electromagnetic radiation having to do with quantum mechanics. In order to travel across several solar systems, Ziggy and Chloé employed the use of photon waves in quantum theory.
- 29} exact; exactly; definite. The aliens interrogated Farmer Tice and put him through a series of tests in order to determine his precise level of intelligence.
- 30} members of the communist party; members of fraternal or political group; friend or companion. Ziggy and Chloé were, both, students and comrades.

The aliens thought Farmer Tice was able to hide an entire barn inside his pants.