

FARMER TICE'S VOCABULARY PRACTICE PT. 3

- 1} A person who makes illegal spirits; Farmer Tice was a part-time _____ and hid his still in a shack behind the outhouse.
- 2} free from the demands of work or duty; unhurried; at ease. Farmer Tice was never a hard worker. Instead, most people considered him to be a man of _____.
- 3} someone who withdraws blood from the arm. When Farmer Tice left the _____, his puny arms were full of holes, & he was told, "Sorry about that. I didn't mean to do it."
- 4} a very smelly kind of German-made cheese. When Farmer Tice opened up the _____, everyone cleared the room in a hurry.
- 5} a tricky rascal, rogue, or scoundrel. Between Farmer Tice & The Weasel, it's hard to say who was the bigger _____.
- 6} doctor specializing in the rectum & anus. Farmer Tice went to see Dr. Squint, the _____, who shoved a small camera up his butt & made a movie of his colon.
- 7} testicles of bulls, boars, & rams; a hillbilly delicacy. Honeybunch cooked Farmer Tice's favorites; possum, collard greens, fatback, & deep fried _____.
- 8} coal or petroleum oil; used for lanterns & to make jet fuel. Farmer Tice used _____ not only to fuel his lantern, but also mixed it with lard & salt to treat cuts on animals.
- 9} A person or thing that brings bad luck. Mother Tice nicknamed him _____, because she thought Farmer Tice was a bad luck baby, & she was right.
- 10} a bad or wrong name or designation. The Hokum "International" Airport is a _____, because all of the flights dealt with local crop dusting planes.
- 11} a toilet, head, rest-room, or privy at a military base. Farmer Tice was made Captain of the Head & given the job of PLO, which stands for Permanent _____ Orderly.
- 12} a ceremony or formal introduction to the military. Farmer Tice thought his _____ into the military was a party given just to him for winning the lottery.
- 13} A native Hawaiian loose fitting dress favored by heavyset women. Honeybunch wore her brand new _____ to the Farmer Tice Root Beer celebration.
- 14} a big farm; big & wealth farm in the south. Honeybunch only agreed to marry Farmer Tice, because she thought he was a rich _____ owner.
- 15} a slogan or saying. Farmer Tice's favorite _____ is "Always put off for tomorrow what your wife tells you to do today."
- 16} a physic taken for constipation. The Weasel fed Farmer Tice a whole box of little chocolate bars that contained a strong _____ & ended up with a bad case of diarrhea.

17} something that is obligatory or required. Taking long afternoon naps was something Farmer Tice considered a _____ duty of being a farmer.

18} to fix or repair completely. Farmer Tice was too cheap & too lazy to _____ his broken down old tractor. Besides, a well-running tractor meant more work to be done.

19} taking or borrowing something of low value with intent to keep. Farmer Tice was always _____ from his wife's cookie jar & leaving IOUs.

20} a resident; one who lives, dwells, or resides in a place permanently. Farmer Tice hid out at Swine Hall so much, you'd think he was an _____ & not just a lodge member.

21} boring, like doing the same thing over & over. Husking corn and picking tomatoes got to be so _____ for Farmer Tice that he'd often be found hiding out at Bum Park.

22} making fun of someone through imitative speech or action. Honeybunch's parrot, Lucille, was always insulting Farmer Tice by _____ him.

23} appreciative or grateful; bound by duty, ethics, or politeness. Instead of saying "thank you", the hillbillies of Hokum often said "much _____".

24} utterly; entirely; no doubt about it. When Honeybunch went through the changes of life, she turned _____ loco.

25} chemicals that are used in laxatives. Dr. Squint gave Farmer Tice a concoction containing a large amount of _____ and advised him to wait next to the john.

26} synonym for laxative. Farmer Tice gorged himself with so many rich foods at the party that he became constipated and had to send The Weasel to the drug store for some _____.

27} remade or redesigned; recreated in a new & different way. Farmer Tice was always looking for _____ gadgets to do his work for him.

28} worldwide; of different nations. Farmer Tice took his Gorilla Kung Fu to England hoping to become an _____ success, but ended up in a heap of trouble.

29} too much to bear; too difficult to handle; too powerful. The thought of being sentenced to thirty days of hard labor with Honeybunch as warden was completely _____ to Farmer Tice.

30} to think, deliberate, or muse; deep thought. The day before his wife's birthday, Farmer Tice _____ "Should I buy Honeybunch a gift, or get m'self a new fishin' pole?"

induction, inhabitant, international, jinx, kerosene, knave, latrine, laxative, leisure, Limburger, magnesium citrate, mandatory, misnomer, mocking, monotonous, moonshiner, motto, mountain oysters, muumuu, newfangled, obliged, overhaul, overwhelming, Phlebotomist, physic, pilfering, plantation, plumb, pondered, proctologist

FARMER TICE'S VOCABULARY PRACTICE PT. 3 (ANSWERS)

- 1} A person who makes illegal spirits; Farmer Tice was a part-time moonshiner and hid his still in a shack behind the outhouse.
- 2} free from the demands of work or duty; unhurried; at ease. Farmer Tice was never a hard worker. Instead, most people considered him to be a man of leisure.
- 3} someone who withdraws blood from the arm. When Farmer Tice left the phlebotomist, his puny arms were full of holes, & he was told, "Sorry about that. I didn't mean to do it."
- 4} a very smelly kind of German-made cheese. When Farmer Tice opened up the Limburger, everyone cleared the room in a hurry.
- 5} a tricky rascal, rogue, or scoundrel. Between Farmer Tice & The Weasel, it's hard to say who was the bigger knave.
- 6} doctor specializing in the rectum & anus. Farmer Tice went to see Dr. Squint, the proctologist, who shoved a small camera up his butt & made a movie of his colon.
- 7} testicles of bulls, boars, & rams; a hillbilly delicacy. Honeybunch cooked Farmer Tice's favorites; possum, collard greens, fatback, & deep fried mountain oysters.
- 8} coal or petroleum oil; used for lanterns & to make jet fuel. Farmer Tice used kerosene not only to fuel his lantern, but also mixed it with lard & salt to treat cuts on animals.
- 9} A person or thing that brings bad luck. Mother Tice nicknamed him Jinx, because she thought Farmer Tice was a bad luck baby, & she was right.
- 10} a bad or wrong name or designation. The Hokum "International" Airport is a misnomer, because all of the flights dealt with local crop dusting planes.
- 11} a toilet, head, rest-room, or privy at a military base. Farmer Tice was made Captain of the Head & given the job of PLO, which stands for Permanent Latrine Orderly.
- 12} a ceremony or formal introduction to the military. Farmer Tice thought his induction into the military was a party given just to him for winning the lottery.
- 13} A native Hawaiian loose fitting dress favored by heavyset women. Honeybunch wore her brand new muumuu to the Farmer Tice Root Beer celebration.
- 14} a big farm; big & wealth farm in the south. Honeybunch only agreed to marry Farmer Tice, because she thought he was a rich plantation owner.
- 15} a slogan or saying. Farmer Tice's favorite motto is "Always put off for tomorrow what your wife tells you to do today."
- 16} a physic taken for constipation. The Weasel fed Farmer Tice a whole box of little chocolate bars that contained a strong laxative & ended up with a bad case of diarrhea.

17} something that is obligatory or required. Taking long afternoon naps was something Farmer Tice considered a mandatory duty of being a farmer.

18} to fix or repair completely. Farmer Tice was too cheap & too lazy to overhaul his broken down old tractor. Besides, a well-running tractor meant more work to be done.

19} taking or borrowing something of low value with intent to keep. Farmer Tice was always pilfering from his wife's cookie jar & leaving IOUs.

20} a resident; one who lives, dwells, or resides in a place permanently. Farmer Tice hid out at Swine Hall so much, you'd think he was an inhabitant & not just a lodge member.

21} boring, like doing the same thing over & over. Husking corn and picking tomatoes got to be so monotonous for Farmer Tice that he'd often be found hiding out at Bum Park.

22} making fun of someone through imitative speech or action. Honeybunch's parrot, Lucille, was always insulting Farmer Tice by mocking him.

23} appreciative or grateful; bound by duty, ethics, or politeness. Instead of saying "thank you", the hillbillies of Hokum often said "much obliged".

24} utterly; entirely; no doubt about it. When Honeybunch went through the changes of life, she turned plumb loco.

25} chemicals that are used in laxatives. Dr. Squint gave Farmer Tice a concoction containing a large amount of magnesium cirate and advised him to wait next to the john.

26} synonym for laxative. Farmer Tice gorged himself with so many rich foods at the party that he became constipated and had to send The Weasel to the drug store for some physic.

27} remade or redesigned; recreated in a new & different way. Farmer Tice was always looking for newfangled gadgets to do his work for him.

28} worldwide; of different nations. Farmer Tice took his Gorilla Kung Fu to England hoping to become an International success, but ended up in a heap of trouble.

29} too much to bear; too difficult to handle; too powerful. The thought of being sentenced to thirty days of hard labor with Honeybunch as warden was completely overwhelming to Farmer Tice.

30} to think, deliberate, or muse; deep thought. The day before his wife's birthday, Farmer Tice pondered, "Should I buy Honeybunch a gift, or get m'self a new fishin' pole?"

From Book #2,

The time Farmer Tice demonstrated Gorilla Kung Fu on his wife!

